Milestone 02: Implementation Details

This milestone focuses on the implementation of the AI-based automated testing system using Python, Flask, and Playwright.

The NLP parser interprets user instructions and extracts structured actions.

The test case generator converts structured actions into Playwright scripts, which are executed in a headless browser environment.

Execution results are collected and summarized in structured test reports.